

Mississippi, and Sharp Mesa Vista Hospital, the largest private inpatient psychiatric hospital in California.

Not content with just ensuring a range of health care services that span cradle to hospice, Dan has led efforts to improve health care policy, quality, and affordability through leadership roles with both the California Hospital and the American Hospital associations. He has advised federal, state and local elected officials, federal and state agencies, and business and civic organizations.

In retirement, Dan could not step away from Sharp during a major public health crisis such as COVID-19, therefore he has continued to lend his expertise and steady leadership. Dan continues to be involved as an active board member for the California Health Care Foundation, an independent, nonprofit philanthropy that focuses on improving the health care system for families in California.

Dan has been a champion for access to high quality health care in San Diego, California and the nation. He has worked tirelessly to expand San Diego's health care infrastructure, provide opportunities for the next generation of health care providers, promote excellence in nursing, and support science education, research and advances in the treatment of chronic diseases. Madam Speaker, we ask that you please join us in recognizing Daniel L. Gross.

HONORING THE FAITHFUL SERVICE OF MARINE CORPS SERGEANT DAVID H. BROWN OF TENNESSEE

HON. MARK E. GREEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 17, 2020

Mr. GREEN of Tennessee. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Marine Corps Sergeant David H. Brown for his distinguished service to this nation.

Sergeant Brown joined the Marine Corps in 1963 at the age of 17, and in 1966, he was sent to Vietnam as a Platoon Sergeant with Lima Company, 3rd Battalion, 26th Marines, 3rd Marine Division. His unit participated in multiple operations to prevent the North Vietnamese from assaulting South Vietnam across the DMZ. As a result of these operations, Sergeant Brown was wounded several times and awarded the Purple Heart.

Sergeant Brown's indomitable spirit and dedication to his fellow Marines led him to stay and fight with his brothers, rather than leaving Vietnam. On September 8, 1967, Lima Company came under heavy fire that killed one marine and wounded 28 others. With Sergeant Brown's leadership, they resisted the attack and were able to establish a command post.

On September 10, Sergeant Brown's platoon once again took heavy fire from the NVA. Without hesitation, Sergeant Brown established a defensive position and repulsed the enemy attack by charging them with grenades that momentarily disrupted the onslaught, and after running out of grenades, he used a wounded marine's M-79 grenade launcher to prevent further enemy assault while simultaneously killing several NVA members. He then dragged the wounded to safety and rallied his men to the fight, until he was struck and killed by enemy fire.

Even on the day that Sergeant Brown was supposed to be on a flight home, he chose to fight and die alongside his brothers. As a monument of gratitude to exemplary service and courageous spirit, Wayne County in Tennessee has chosen to dedicate a bridge in his honor. On behalf of the United States Congress, I wish to commend Sergeant Brown for his heroic service and to thank him and his family for making the ultimate sacrifice for freedom.

CLARIFYING POSITION ON H. RES. 908

HON. DANIEL WEBSTER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 17, 2020

Mr. WEBSTER of Florida. Madam Speaker, regrettably, when the electronic vote was taken on H. Res. 908, I was recorded incorrectly. I oppose all forms of discrimination against any American on the sole basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age or sex. I oppose this politically-motivated and flawed resolution and intended to vote NO. Furthermore, I have and will continue to speak openly about The Chinese Communist Party, their hatred of American ideals and liberty and their attacks on our country."
